Iridium Service and Support is also available from your Iridium phone by dialling 4493 and Iridium web support is always available at www.iridium.com

ADDITIONAL SERVICESVoice Mail Service

If you call an Iridium phone that is switched off, you will be prompted to leave a voice or numerical message. The mobile user will be notified of the waiting message when they switch on the phone again.

Data Service

With the addition of a data kit (handhelds) or data CD (vehicle and marine models) and a Personal Computer, you can connect to the Internet, a LAN or another PC for email and web browsing.

Two Stage Dialling

Calling an Iridium handset from a fixed line or cellular phone can be comparatively expensive. For example, to call an Iridium handset from a New Zealand fixed or cellular line, the caller could be charged anywhere from NZ$6 to $25 per minute depending on the callers telecoms service provider (e.g. Telstra, Telecom, Vodafone etc). To enable cheaper calling rates a two stage calling system can be used when calling to Iridium Satellite Phones.

Two Stage Dialling telephone numbers in the US or UK are available, allowing a call to be placed from any landline/mobile telephone/satellite telephone to your Iridium handset for approximately US $1.70 per minute. The satellite portion of this service is charged on a receiving party pays basis, i.e. the registered owner of the Iridium phone pays for the satellite portion of the call (just like roaming on a GSM phone). The calling party pays the cost of the international call from say, NZ to the US. Note: Two Stage Dialling may not be possible from some countries, contact Wright Satellite Connections for more information.

Stand-Alone Paging Service and Follow-Me Paging Service

Stand-alone is for pager-only customers, while follow-me paging eliminates the need to set Message Delivery Areas for customers who have both phone and pager.

* This service is provided as standard free of charge unless requested otherwise on the first page of this Agreement.

 Dependent on calling plan selected.
